WESTERN PAPERS SUPPRESS NEWS OF SPEECHES BY COX

Lack of Square Deal in G. O. P. Press Disturbs Democratic Nominee, He Tells David Lawrence.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Special Correspondent of The News

BOARD GOV. COX'S TRAIN, SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA Sept. 21. - Riding through the state of California for a day with the Democrati for the presidence afforded not merely an opportunity to estimate the warmth and enthusiasm of the crowds, but between stations Gov. Cox crowds, but between stations Gov. Cox talked frankly to the writer about the status of his campaign.

The Ohio governor is most disturbed by what seems to him, at any rate, as unfair attitude on the part of many of the newspapers of the West. He said he didn't expect Republican newspapers to commend his speeches editorially, or to hand him bouquets, but he did expect a square deal. Again and again, he declared, the newspapers in some of the large cities on the coast had deitherately suppressed the news of his speeches.

In one instance the newspapers failed to announce correctly the time of the governor's arrival or to give any prominence when he came into their vicinity. Also the governor was advised that one large newspaper never published his speech of acceptance.

The governor said that he did not expect the newspapers to print partisan reports in his favor, but he had believed they would at least give space to the dispatches of the Associated Press and other press associations.

Attitude of the People.

Attitude of the People.

Attitude of the People.

"The most sinister thing I have observed on my Western trin." he said, "was the rebellious attitude of the people whenever I make any reference in any speech to the press. Can it be that the people are losing confidence in the press of the country? As a newspaper publisher, I think it hurts our profession, and as an American, I think it is a dangerous tendency. For the people of the country expect the press to be fair and to give both parties a square deal. That is the only safe way to retain confidence in our institutions."

The governor having been advised by local leaders that, very little about his campaign in other states had been published in coast cities, has made it a point to repeat many parts of preceding speeches.

His approach to Southern California was a continuous reception at the stations along the coast route. Even though be made no speeches on Sunday and the people evidently didn't expect any, folk came out in large numbers to greet the Democratic nominee. Situation in the State.

California is hardly considered a doubtful state by Republicans this year, many of whom insist that the majority of Harding will not be less than 100,000. But, while some of the Democratis are inclined to agree with that estimate today, they decline to admit it will be the final decision of the state. California can turn itself upside down in a week and the splendid impression made by Gov. Cox en route through California has raised the hopes of his friends that the tide has begun to turn.

friends that the tide has begun to turn.

The enthusiastic welcome given Gev. Cox in San Francisco by the business men and at Oakland by a crowd that was plainly in sympathy with his league of nations argument has atimulated the hopes of even those Democrats who were inclined to despuir of the outcome before Gov. Cox got here. Followers of Hiram Johnson are friendly to Gav. Cox. They see in the Ohio governor points of similarity to their own idol. Indeed, it his whispered that Senator Johnson will confine his disagreement with Gov. Cox chiefly to the league of nations, as he is said to feel a keen admiration for the progressive record of the Ohio governor.

for the progressive record of the Onlog governor.

Several Johnson men told the writer that, if it were not for the strong fight made by Senator Johnson against the league of nations as an issue in this state, Gov. Cox would carry California easily on the issue of progressivism. Certainty the rank and file of Johnson supporters are leaning to Cox and some openly characterize Senator Harding as a reactionary. How much of this is due to disappendment over the failure of the Republican party at Chicago; to select Johnson as standard-bearer, and how much it reflects a frientily feeling toward a progressive, is hard to say.

Big Vote on Senatorship.

Certainly, as one travels about the state, observers point to the large Republican registration in the primaries and say that there will be a big vote in the senstorial contest, but that a surprising number of people will not vote for either Cox or Harding Evidence of a suilenness in this state are not lacking.

dence of a suiterness in this state are not lacking.

The people who helped Johnson win the primary vote for the presidential momination are deeply hurt that the verdict was ignored, and flow Cox pours oil on the troubled waters not only by emphasising that Senator Harding didn't carry any primaries outside his own state, but that, if Senator Johnson had entered the obto primary he would have captured the state's vote.

he would have captured the state's vote.

Northern California, with its anti-league of nations southmut among the right as a factor of imperiance, seems to be at the present moment inclined toward the Brighthian nominee. This state, however, and everybody guessing four years ago and shows some of the same symptoms of uncertainty this year. Copyright, 1929, by David Lawrence.

MILLERAND SEEKS TO REVISE CONSTITUTION

PARIS, Sept. 21.—Revision of the French constitution which was give greater stability to the government and enlarge the electoral college which chooses the president of the republic, will be attempted by Premier Milicrand when he takes office as president, according to newspapers here. He would have the electoral college include not only members of the two houses of parliament, but delegates from local elected bodies and from great corporations.

M. Millerand also believes the president should be less of a figurehead than has been the rule in the past, and that official should play a role of confident and cordial collaboration with the government in office. In other words, his idea would be that the president should be like the head of a stock company, in which the ministers would take the part of directors and the premier the managing director. He is convinced, it is said, that this plan would assure great continuity and cohesion in the executive branch of the government.

G. O. P. SPEAKERS LIE, ROOSEVELT ASSERTS

TROY, N. Y., Sent. 21.—At a luncheon meeting of Democrats here yesterday, Franklin D. Roosevelt scored the Republican candidates for failing to "stand on their feet." He charged that is elected they would be "merely the figure heads through which the 'powers' of the party would work in the actual government of the country.

"The attitude of Republican speakers in many parts of the country is one of lies," he continued. "In dealing with the league of nations issue they make every effort to mislead the public.

"In parts of the country where there is a socalled German vote, Republican campaign speakers try to get votes by warning that the league is calculated to strengthen France and condemn cermany to serve it. In districts such as Northern New England they tell French-Americans that the league, on the contrary, would fortify Germany, make her a greater power than ever, and ruin France."

COUNCIL OF LEAGUE AVERTS TWO WARS

Pole-Lithuanian Hostilities Is Stopped.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—The ninth session of the council of the league of nations adjourned yesterday after having smoothed out difficulties between four nations in controversies which at one time, threatened to result in war. Through its action in the Polish-Lithuanian crisis, the council succeeded in getting the two countries to agree to an immediate suspension of hostilities pending a settlement of their dispute which both sides agreed to accept.

The Aland Islands question likewise is considered in a fair way for settlement. A Finnish reservation which at first appeared seriously to cloud the issue was explained as not offering an insurmountable difficulty and as having been made largely for technical reasons.

League officials explained that, although neither Finland nor Sweden was legally bound to accept the 'eague decision, they were morally bound to accept it. It was further pointed out that a settlement, "If backed by nuone opinion, would virtually compel acceptance."

Count Quinones De Leon, Spanish am-Count Quinones De Leon, Spanish am-hassador to France, and Baron Kelshiro Matsui, Japanese vice-foreign mintater, have been appointed to represent the league of nations in the settlement of the Folish-Lithuanian question and it is expected that at least a tentative decision, will be ready for the approval of the league council at its October ses-sion.
